From the Desk of the Founding Editor

I have embarked on my teaching stint with SGT University since June 2019. Since then, I have contemplated launching a newsletter for the Faculty of Law. In pursuit of it, I made several attempts in the past to make it a reality, but in vain. The persistent failures did not deter me from backing out of this novel initiative. I recently approached and discussed my vision of publishing a newsletter from the Faculty of Law with the Dean Ma'am. She approved of my proposal and provided all the possible support.

My dream has finally come true by launching the Newsletter entitled 'LAW SPECTRUM' for academic year 2023-24. It is my humble contribution to the growth story of the Faculty of Law. I am sure that it is not only a ready reckoner to know the dynamic nature of the Faculty of Law, but also a conduit or channel for sharing the happenings at the Faculty of Law.

As a founding editor, it gives me immense pleasure to flag off the inaugural edition of the Newsletter from August 2023. The inaugural edition carries a 'Message of Blessings' from the competent authorities of the university. Followed by the section on 'Event Brief' has chronicled the activities of the Faculty of Law for the month of August 2023. Next, the 'Student Achievements' section provides vivid information on students' recent achievements. Finally, this edition ends with 'Student Corner' where the creative expressions of students have been let loose.

I appreciate and acknowledge the newsletter team members' input and unwavering support in bringing out the inaugural edition. We welcome your feedback for its enrichment and outreach.

Have a happy reading!!!

Dr. Mahalingam M
Founding Editor & Associate Professor
Faculty of Law, SGT University.

THE POEM OF MY HAND -

It's the numbness I feel whenever I see you
My heart skips a beat whenever I see you
I never knew this feeling before
It made me crazy
I felt like a daisy.
I am living in the forever field of love.

But now it's different,
the numbness I feel
I don't know if it's the grief
Or it's the seal
I sealed myself from the lie
And concealed the truth by the rife
I pretended not to know and in the winter
I saw the season of fall.

My hands were shaking when I first met you
I was the first one here who felt the piece of politeness in your silence
The hint of love I felt in your eyes
I was ready to catch you if you fall
But oh God! If I ever knew the mismatch of our souls
I don't know how
The numbness I feel now is different from then
I don't know when I started to feel distant.

My hands are shaking now
Maybe they are still in disbelief
That now they will never feel the same, comfort the warmth of your hand and love
The hands that fitted mine like gloves.

I question myself every night
Have I become emotionless
Why I always smile
Despite the sadness lying underneath
Being a happy person in front of other eyes.
Mixed with the eyes of yours
The pain stung in my heart
I cry in the dark
Because now even the light seems sharp.

The numbness of my hands grew
My body now compelled me to rew
To get over this pain, but my heart denied

I never got hurt by the words of others
But yours are being held in the abyss of my soul
The scent of your body has now become a part of me, not leaving me freely
